Uh, Jen and Jan, would you like to explain this or should we guess?

You must of been a beautiful baby, but baby, look at ya now!

Our first function was a success

Arizona! Georgia! California! Uh, uh...whack!

Aaron made us a birthday cake. (And it was good, no tricks!)

"Janice?" "Huh?" click!

Formal Initiation for our freshmen and new students.

Aaron made us a birthday cake. (And it was good, no tricks!)

Ah, come on Donna, I want to use it, too.

Jen guides (crash!) Donna (bang!) to our (trip!) spook house (ouch!)

Hong Kong to Mahana? Progress or digress?

No, Peggy, it's not octopus legs, it's my hair in front of the lens.

Jo and her icy hand of welcome.

"Turn around, look at me." awk!

Did you say initiation was for the freshmen?

"Jesus wants me for a sunbeam..." At 8:00 in the morning? Forget it!!

Pucker up guys, it's our birthday.

A happy ending to a hard night.

Judy's 22nd birthday - she's getting more beautiful, Don't you think? Curlers in your hair, shame on you!

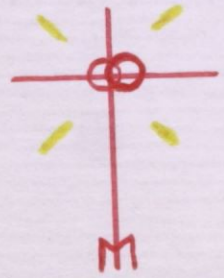
With Deepest Sympathy

TO THE GIRLS OF MAHANA
LOVE AND KISSES

AARON???????

Mahana

Mahana is a Tahitian word meaning sun. It also stands for the enlightenment of knowledge and the light of spiritual love. The house symbol for Mahana was chosen for several reasons. The cross itself represents spiritual love symbolized by Christ's death upon the cross. The interlocking circles, at the point of intersection, represent unity within the house and throughout the campus. One circle has a heavier line than the other, giving it the meaning of the sun with the rays extending out form it. The extension of the cross may also be concidered rays. The "M" at the base of the cross stands for our name--Mahana. The colors which have been chosen to represent Mahana are pale yellow and gold, for both are colors of the sun.



House song

Vea-Vea-Te Mahana

chorus:

O Ma-ha-na
Vea-véa-te Mahana
House of smiling sun
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Sisterhood we share
Vea-vea-te Mahana
As we learn to care
Vea-vea-te Mahana

verse:

From lands afar we each one come
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Strangers still, so far from home.
Vea-vea-te Mahana
But our love, work, and fun
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Soon will make our hearts as one.
Vea-vea-te Mahana

Each of us has joys and fears,
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Times of laughter, times of tears,
Vea-vea-te Mahana
But together we will grow
Vea-vea-te Mahana
'Neath the Sunbeam's warmth and glow.
Vea-vea-te Mahana

Don't stop here, but outward flow
Vea-vea-te Mahana
'Til the world is all aglow.
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Spread the word both far and near
Véa-vea-te Mahana
Of the love that's living here.
Vea-vea-te Mahana.
